Place Names in Order

Place Names in Canada

Townships of Lennox & Addington

- Ashby formed in 1857 - Takes its name from a town in Leicestershire England. (Ashby de la Zouche.) In it is an old castle in which Mary, Queen of Scots was once confined.
- Denbigh formed in 1859. It was named after Denbighshire in Wales which has large iron & coal mines.
- Effingham formed in 1872. Took its name from Henry Howard, Earl of Effingham. The village of Effingham is in Surrey, England.
- Abinger formed 1859, named in honour of Sir James Scarlett, Baron Abinger, of Abinger in Surrey, England. One of his sons led the Cavalry at Balaclava when they made the famous charge.
- Anglesea formed 1822 named after Marquis of Anglesea - title taken from Isle of Anglesea in North Wales.
- Kaladar formed in 1820. Origin uncertain - Some writers think that it may be derived from an East Indian word - "Kalladar" meaning "The Governor of a Fort" "Kalandar" is a term applied to a vagrant saint in India. There is a tradition in the township that its name is a corruption of "kill a deer".
- Sheffield -
- Camden East formed in 1787 - Named for Earl Camden of Devonshire Sir Gilbert Parker born in village
- Ernesttown formed in 1784 named for Prince Ernest Augustus fifth son of George III.
- Amherst Island named after Field Marshall Sir Jeffery Amherst Commander of Forces at Louisbourg in 1758. First Governor General of Canada.
- Adolphustown formed in 1784 named after Prince Adolphus Frederick Duke of Cambridge seventh son of King George III Queen Mary, wife of George V is the great granddaughter of Prince Adolphus.
- N.S. Fredericshburgh formed in 1784 named after Prince Frederick, second son of George III.
- Richmond formed in 1786 - Charles Lennox third Duke of Richmond Lennox - same organized in 1792
- Addington named in 1792 - Henry Addington a Lord Sidmouth named by Governor Simcoe in honour of his friend.

Quinte The word is a corruption of the name of an Iroquois Indian village of former days situated in the neighbourhood of Rice Lake and spelled by various French geographers Kentsis, Kentis, Quents. English geographers called Lake de Kentsis, Rice Lake and taking a long stride eastward brought the Indian name down to the French Lac St Leon under the form, Bay of Quinte. The meaning of this Indian word is unknown.

Bath Named after Bath a city in Somersetshire Eng. noted for its mineral springs & Baths.

Pictou It was named in honour of Maj. General Sir Thomas Pictou who led the 5th Division in the battle of Waterloo, June 18-1815 & fell in the action.

Kingston occupies the site of the Indian village of Calaraguit & of the fort built by Count Frontenac, built in 1672. The English village of Kingston was founded in 1784. The City was named Kingstown, (afterwards contracted to Kingston) in honour of King George III.

Belleville In early documents, spelled Bellville. It is said to have been named after a Colonel, a pioneer in the district. Dr. Scadding states that Lieut Governor Gore named it after his wife Arabella (contracted Belle).

Canada The generally accepted derivation of our Country's name is the Iroquois word Kanata or Kanaka meaning a Cabin or a lodge. The name first made its appearance in Cartier's account of his second voyage ~~to~~ the Country in 1535.

Other derivations - Algonquin - Odanah - "settlement".

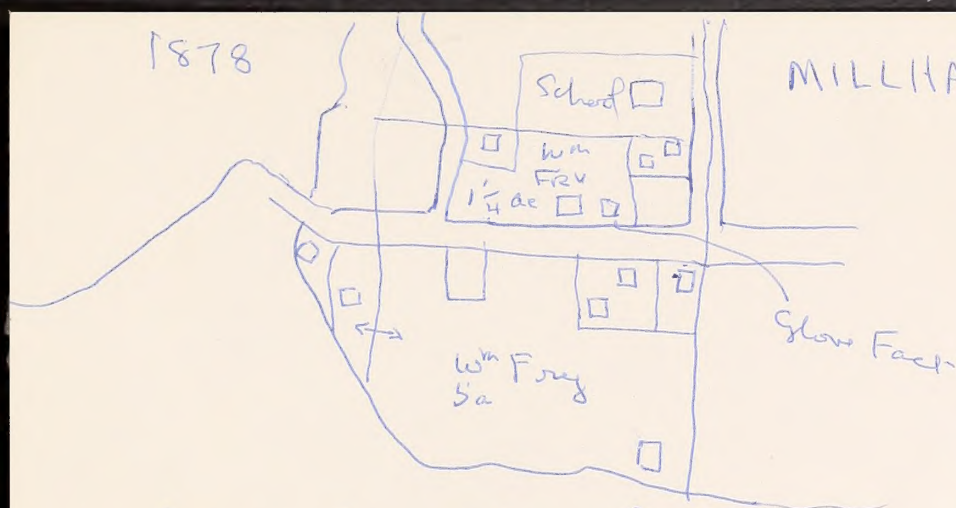

Spanish - Aca nada - nothing here.

America derived from the Christian name of Amerigo Vesputti (Latinized from Americus Vesputius) who in 1497 reached the coast of what is now known as Duluth Superior in S. A.
